ARNISTON BAY

SOUTH AFRICA

Taste the sunshine with Arniston Bay wine, where the vineyards meet the ocean. Established in 1996, the Arniston Bay wine range was inspired by the historic fishing village of Arniston, Kassiesbaai. This 200 year-old fisherman's village is situated at the most southerly point of the African continent. The village is a national monument and its whitewashed, thatched cottages have stolen the hearts of many. The range of Arniston Bay wines aim to capture the essence of Arniston's charm and character.

GRANTED 1689

Ken Forrester is situated on the slopes below the Helderberg Mountain, in the heart of South Africa's most famous wine region Stellenbosch. Their vineyards are commonly referred to as the home of Chenin Blanc, and they have numerous awards and accolades for chenin as well as some of the finest Rhone Blends in the country. Ken's philosophy has always been to create a range of handcrafted wines that compliment a wide variety of food styles and provide excellent value.

KEN FORRESTER, RESERVE "OLD VINES"

Stellenbosch | South Africa

Chenin Blanc

Golden hued and full bodied, with melon and spicy baked apple aromas. Layered, with mineral notes enhanced by honeycomb and caramel flavours from lees contact. This wine is a great example of the harmonious balance which can be achieved between fruit and delicate oak/vanilla flavours.

LE BONHEUR

— STELLENBOSCH —

Nestled between the magnificent Simonsberg Mountains and Klapmuts Hill, Le Bonheur is the gateway to South Africa's most renowned wine producing region – Stellenbosch. With a history dating back to the 1700's, Le Bonheur Wine Estate epitomises the rich heritage of Stellenbosch and boasts some of the most diverse terroir in Stellenbosch. This varies from 450m altitude Sauvignon Blanc sites right on top of Klapmuts Hill, to deep granite slopes which are home to the Cabernet Sauvignon vineyards that have made Le Bonheur a Stellenbosch icon. With traditional open fermenters dating back from a bygone winemaking era, the Le Bonheur cellar is as timeless as the wines it produces.

LE BONHEUR

Cabernet Sauvignon

Dark ruby red. Classic notes of dense blackcurrant, cedarwood and subtle hints of pencil shavings and dark chocolate. Full-bodied, with supple and smooth tannins. With deft use of oak and meticulous blending, this wine presents fine balance and excellent ageing potential.

Chardonnay

Pale straw. Elegant notes of citrus blossoms, melon and white peach with a touch of minerality. Medium-bodied, with a crisp acidity. Generous citrus fruit is supported by a touch of oak.

ADVINI

DES VIGNOBLES, DES HOMMES, L'ÉMOTION

The story of AdVini is a saga of people and family; of determined and passionate entrepreneurs who, over six generations, have established the solid foundation of a unique model in the world of wine.

From our origins in the Languedoc region where the Jeanjean family established their business in Saint-Félix-de-Lodez in 1872, we have continued to expand our horizons, explore new areas and offer the world the excellence of the terroirs in which we are rooted.

Our history is one of committed and visionary women and men, inspired by our age-old winegrowing traditions and driven by conviviality and solidarity, who continue to write the new chapters of this generous adventure.
