

The Australian Chamber of Commerce in Vietnam

'The professional hub linking opportunities across a thriving Australia & Vietnam business community'

About

The Australian Chamber of Commerce in Vietnam (AusCham) is an independent, not for profit, membership-based organization. AusCham's revenue is generated through sponsorships, memberships, events and advertising. AusCham provides all members with a voice to express their views on the business environment in Vietnam, directly within the business community and via our liaison with the Australian and Vietnam Government, the Vietnam Business Forum (VBF), Vietnam Australia Business Council (VABC) in partnership with the Vietnam Chamber of Commerce & Industry (VCCI). AusCham actively co-ordinates a regular program signature events, high-profile business seminars, networking and social functions as well as charity events during the year.

Vision

'The professional hub linking opportunities across a thriving Australia & Vietnam business community'

Mission

Through advocacy, education, events and networking - Auscham will meet the needs of its stakeholders and potential members looking to do and promote trade and investment between Australia and Vietnam.

Values

Good Governance - We operate from a plan to the benefit of all stakeholders, with no conflicts of interest - guided by professionalism honesty and integrity.

Diversity - We are welcoming of all regardless of race, gender, religion, sexuality or ethnicity.

Sustainable - We support practices that acknowledge the importance of environmental, social and economic sustainability for a strong community now and in the future.

Strategy

Advocate - by representing the interests of members across government and industry through formal representation.

Connect - by creating an environment for members to meet and learn through various events.

Educate - by regularly sharing and communicating the most accurate and up-to-date information by trusted partners to our members.

Organizational Structure

AusCham is governed by a National Board comprising eight HCMC-based Directors and four Hanoi-based Directors who are supported by five permanent staff in HCMC and Hanoi. AusCham also has Official Representatives in the Central Region of Vietnam (Da Nang) and Australia (Queensland, New South Wales, Victoria, South Australia and Western Australia).

Opportunities

Companies or individuals requiring access to AusCham's members, can leverage the AusCham weekly e-newsletters, website and many sponsorship opportunities - All Members are entitled to discounted rates on other members goods and services as advertised. Companies or individuals looking to reach very targeted, industry-specific audiences should consider event sponsorships which include the opportunity to speak and promote your business; such events are our monthly networking event 'Sundowners', briefing events and signature events.

AusCham hosts a number of high-profile annual events such as the Vietnam Real Estate Market Symposium, Annual Education Event, Vietnam Golf Series, the Australian Business Awards and AusCham Charity Ball. AusCham often holds ad hoc seminars and workshops which are directly organized by sponsors and promoted by us in HCMC, Ha Noi and Da Nang.

Membership

As an AusCham Member you have the opportunity to connect with over 600 AusCham members in Vietnam and the ASEAN region. We publish a weekly e-newsletter to a total audience of more than 6,000 and further post to an estimated 17,000 followers across social media almost daily.

AusCham represents and promotes the interests of Australian businesses operating in Vietnam. We, as a not-for-profit chamber of commerce are proud to have a pivotal function in providing invaluable business and cultural support to members and sponsors activities and needs in Vietnam and Australia.

AusCham provides all members with a voice to express their views on the business environment of Vietnam, directly within the business community and via our liaison with the Australian and Vietnam Government, the Vietnam Business Forum (VBF), Vietnam Australia Business Council (VABC) in partnership with the Vietnam Chamber of Commerce & Industry (VCCI). We actively co-ordinate a regular program of high-profile business seminars, networking and social functions as well as a number of charity events in the year.

Whilst AusCham covers a wide range of activities, our main objective is to enhance business ties between Australia and Vietnam for the mutual benefit of our members and their Vietnamese counterparts. Furthermore, we keep you up to date with the latest in Vietnam's business news and any changes by way of our newsletters, alerts and by conducting monthly business briefing events.

When you become an AusCham Member, you will have access to the AusCham database and most importantly, you will have a strong and established support base in Vietnam.
